

Want to do your part to save the planet? Then show your gratitude (and green-itude) by attending...

Go Green Expo is the first major New York consumer trade show devoted to practical -- and cool -- green living.

You don't have to be a crunchy treehugger to enjoy it. theONswitch team will be there with ECOBAGS, launching the largest plastic bag ball ever created -- as well as unveiling the all-green trade show display!
