

GREEN YOUR INTENTIONS

Live your life with the very best intentions..

“live simply, so others can simply live”

I had the opportunity to hear Ed Begley Jr. speak at the Go Green Expo last week. He is a man who has been committed to the environment for over 30 + years, and whose words “live simply, so others can simply live” brought tears to my eyes. I bought both of his books and waited in line to have him sign my copy. Once I was in front of him, I told him that I am a breast cancer survivor that wanted to thank him for saving my life by what he does everyday. He looked up at me and said “bless your heart”..which of course made the tears flow..

Inside my copy he wrote.. “to a kindred spirit...so sweet..so heartfelt..”

If you haven't already..check out his site, TV show Living with Ed and books Ed Begley Jr.'s Guide to Sustainable Living and Living with Ed.
