Go Green Expo coming to Philly 'burbs

PHILADELPHIA -- The second annual Go Green Expo will take place April 16-18 at the Greater Philadelphia Expo Center in Oaks.

The show features more than 200 exhibits on environmentally friendly products, services, businesses and nonprofit organizations. There also will be interactive seminars and panel discussions on the hottest green topics, a Green Kids Zone and keynote speeches by eco-leaders, including racecar driver and activist Leilani Munter.

Hours are 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. on Friday, which is designated as a business-to-business day and is free to guests who present a business card. Saturday and Sunday are open to all. Prices are $10 for a weekend pass, $5 for students and senior citizens. Children 12 and under are admitted free.
